

A TALK ON WARTIME HAVERING

Come and listen to the fascinating story of the people of Havering during World War I and II. You'll learn about Havering's greatest kept national secret of WWII, the lives of servicemen and civilians, the impact of bombing, local internment camps and many funny stories collected from the children of the day.

Saturday 17th September 2011 2pm
Tickets £5.00 (Friends of Museum - Free)
Refreshments will be served
Book by telephone or in person at the Museum

Havering Museum
19-21 High Street
Romford RM1 1JU
Tel 01708 766571

