The Titanic

They thought it was unsinkable
But what happened was unthinkable
It sank in the Atlantic
The iceberg was gigantic
That's why they were so frantic
They looked left they looked right
But they did not catch sight
Of the iceberg so white
That caused such a fright
On that terrible night
The sinking of the Titanic
Caused everyone to go manic!
They ran across the deck in a panic
There was not a mechanic
That could fix the Titanic
It was struck on the side
Abandon ship! They cried
But as hard as they tried
Many passengers died
Fighting against the tide
