Loan Boxes

Touch and feel history with Havering Museum's range of loan boxes. Themed by topic they offer pupils the opportunity to see how modern equivalents have developed.

Topics include Victorian School, Toys, Tudor era, Ind-Coope Brewery and WWII. Each box contains a wide range of artefacts, notes for the teacher and activities for the pupils.

Boxes may be hired on a weekly or monthly basis at a low cost. Prices start from £5.00 per week. Further information on our website

Visit Havering Museum for a 'WOW' Learning Experience

-  Havering Museum has a proven track record in providing bespoke education sessions for schools. Children come to have fun in a creative and inspiring environment where we bring history to life for them.
-  The galleries and our local history collection, handling objects and activities trigger the pupil's inquiring minds, allowing them to become historic time-detectives.
-  We ensure that school sessions are linked to National Curriculum requirements. Activities are regularly updated and reflect content included in new collections.

Museum Visits includes...

-  90 minute sessions for up to 30 children.
-  Sessions designed to the teacher's specification and learning plan.
-  Visits are mainly in the mornings, allowing the Museum to be closed to the public during your stay, giving you full unrestricted access to explore.
-  Each visit is tailor-made and will involve a mixture of activities including a short talk, gallery exploration, activity sheets and object handling.
-  Cost per session start at £90. Discounts are available for multiple bookings. See our website for further details.

Topics Available

-  Havering Museum prides itself on the uniqueness of its educational sessions as they are designed for individual class needs.
 -  Our most requested topics are local history, WWI and WWII, RAF Hornchurch, Romford Market, Romans, Victorian toys and the Titanic. A new pre-history session is now available.
 -  Many more topics are available exploring 'then and now' themes. Talk to our education team to find out more.
- ### We Can Visit Your School
-  Teachers choose the topic. Using Museum resources we design the session to meet your learning objectives.
 -  We can arrange session to meet your timetable. A typical session for 30 children lasts 45 minutes.
